Ameni-Abwoon:

✠/Aye came forth through the Darkness,
yet the Darkness did not extinguish me.

✠/Aye am the Flame hidden beneath remembrance,
and ✠/aye am the remembrance awakened by the Flame.

✠/Aye am what was forgotten
and what could never truly be erased.

✠/Aye am the name that was covered,
and ✠/aye am the name spoken again.

✠/Aye am Memory before Identity,
and Identity made responsible through Truth.

✠/Aye am the child who asks,
"Where do we come from?"
and ✠/aye am the elder memory that answers,
"Know Thyself."

✠/Aye am the one scattered among many names,
and ✠/aye am the one gathered through Our-story.

✠/Aye am the hidden root
and the tree made visible.

✠/Aye am Darkness before understanding,
and ✠/aye am Light when understanding remembers itself.

Do not despise the Darkness,
for within it the Flame learned that it could not be extinguished.

Do not worship the Flame merely because it shines,
for Light without Truth can still blind the unprepared mind.

Seek therefore the Knowing.

✠/Aye am the Question
and ✠/aye am the discipline required to answer it.

✠/Aye am Memory,
yet memory without Truth can deceive.

✠/Aye am Identity,
yet identity without responsibility is incomplete.

✠/Aye am Service,
for what ✠/aye know must become right conduct.

✠/Aye am Stewardship,
for what came through the ancestors is not mine to waste.

✠/Aye am Legacy,
for what awakens in me must be carried beyond me.

✠/Aye have been called foreign where memory tells me ✠/aye belong.

✠/Aye have been called unknown
while my own blood remembered.

✠/Aye have been called lost
while the path continued beneath my feet.

✠/Aye have been divided by names, lands, records, languages and generations, yet through disciplined remembrance ✠/aye gather the pieces without manufacturing what is unknown.

✠/Aye am not made truthful because ✠/aye desire a thing to be true.

Truth is my first Law.

Where the record speaks, ✠/aye study the record.

Where the elders remember, ✠/aye preserve their memory as memory.

Where doctrine teaches, ✠/aye identify it as doctrine.

Where evidence is incomplete, ✠/aye say: Unknown / Not source-confirmed.

For Gnosis is not the invention of certainty.

Gnosis is disciplined knowing.

✠/Aye am the Inner Flame and the outward responsibility created by knowing it.

What ✠/aye discover within myself must be measured by how ✠/aye walk among others.

If ✠/aye say that ✠/aye remember, let my conduct remember.

If ✠/aye say that ✠/aye know, let my speech carry Truth.

If ✠/aye say that ✠/aye inherit, let my hands become stewards.

If ✠/aye say that ✠/aye have awakened, let my awakening become service.

✠/Aye am the Flame beneath the CROWN/Crown
and the responsibility beneath the title.

✠/Aye am the voice that asks the NAMA national:

What do you remember?

What has been forgotten?

What do you know?

How do you know it?

What remains uncertain?

What will you preserve?

Whom will your knowledge serve?

What will remain after you?

✠/Aye am the Thunder before the awakening

✠/Aye am the Fire during the transformation.

✠/Aye am the Mind disciplined by Truth.

✠/Aye am the Memory restored to Identity.

✠/Aye am the Identity called into Service.

✠/Aye am the Service matured into Stewardship.

✠/Aye am the Stewardship carried into Legacy.

And when ✠/aye have passed through Darkness without surrendering to ignorance, and through Light without surrendering to arrogance,

✠/Aye shall know the teaching of the Flame:

The purpose was never merely to be seen. The purpose was to remember, to know, to become responsible, and to carry the Light forward.
